

University of Dayton eCommons

News Releases

Marketing and Communications

9-26-1989

Faith in Action Members to Learn Self-Defense

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Faith in Action Members to Learn Self-Defense" (1989). News Releases. 5396.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/5396

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

The University of Dayton

News Release

FAITH IN ACTION MEMBERS TO LEARN SELF-DEFENSE

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 26, 1989--Faith in Action, an interfaith fellowship of physically disabled adults, will meet on Sunday, Oct. 8 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. for a session on safety awareness and self-defense. The meeting will be held at South Park United Methodist Church, located at the corner of Brown Street and Stonemill Road.

Patrolman Dick Green, crime prevention officer of the Kettering Police Department, will address safety awareness and self-defense for people with disabilities at the meeting. A video on "Wheelchair Self-Defense" will be shown, and a social, business meeting and devotional will also be part of the meeting.

Members are asked to bring one or more small toilet articles to be donated to the St. Vincent Hotel for the Homeless.

For more information on the Faith in Action meeting, contact the University of Dayton's Ministry with the Handicapped at (513) 229-4356. Faith in Action is sponsored by UD's Office for Ministry and Religious Education Services.

-30-